CANUCKS HOCKEY RETURNS TO THE BIG SCREEN AT SELECT CINEPLEX ENTERTAINMENT THEATRES

Vancouver, BC (CGX.UN) – October 13, 2006 – Beginning October 16, 2006, Vancouver Canucks fans have something to cheer about as Cineplex Entertainment invites them back to watch live broadcasts of “larger than life” hockey games on wall-to-wall screens at nine participating theatre locations in British Columbia.

Back by popular demand, the regular season games scheduled to be shown are not available on cable television, making this a unique opportunity for families and friends to see the games on giant wall-to-wall curved screens in Dolby Digital Surround Sound. Where else can fans see defenseman Mattias Ohlund rubbing out an opponent along the boards at 30 or 40 feet high across the screen or goaltender Roberto Luongo making one of his acrobatic saves to keep Vancouver in the game? The theatre will provide a comfortable and safe venue for any Canucks fan to view their favourite team vying to bring the Stanley Cup to Vancouver.

“Cineplex Entertainment is all about bringing our guests more than just movies,” says Pat Marshall, Vice President Communications and Investor Relations for Cineplex Entertainment. “Showing NHL Hockey at our theatres is a great idea that audiences and Canucks fans love. Watching the Canucks on our screens is the next best thing to being in the stands at the actual game.”

For $10.95 a ticket or less, both the entire family and their friends can afford to spend a night out together watching the games.
