Comedian Lewis Black Laughs His Way into Cineplex Entertainment Theatres

TORONTO, ON, October 15, 2009 (CGX.UN) – Cineplex Entertainment and D&E Entertainment are pleased to present a Stark Raving Black production, the comedy of Lewis Black, on Thursday, October 29th at select Cineplex Entertainment theatres across Canada.

“Lewis Black is a lively comedian and entertainer and we are pleased to present his show, Stark Raving Black, to our theatre guests across the country,” said Pat Marshall, Vice-President, Communications and Investor Relations, Cineplex Entertainment. “Watching Lewis Black perform on our big screens in HD and surround sound will allow everyone the opportunity to laugh along with one another in an evening of comedy and great escape.”

“D and E Entertainment is extremely excited to be working with Cineplex Entertainment in bringing Stark Raving Black to Canada,” said Doug Kluthe and Evan Saxon, D&E Entertainment, www.DandEntertainment.com.

The 80-minute feature film of outrageous topical stand-up humour from one of the most hilarious entertainers of our generation is the culmination of his best material from 2009 and two recent shows shot in High-Definition (HD) at the historic Fillmore Theatre in Detroit, Michigan. This is Lewis Black’s first theatrical concert film, serving up his blistering social and political commentary on current events. Directed by New York City filmmaker Adam Dubin, the show was captured in HD with 10 cameras and was produced by veteran TV and documentary filmmaker Jack Gulick and producer Benjamin Brewer.

Advance tickets are now available online at www.cineplex.com/events as well as at participating theatre box offices. Admission for seniors is $9.95 + tax and general admission is $10.95 + tax.
