ODEON DRIVE IN OPENS TONIGHT
With RV and *the Da Vinci Code

May 19, 2006 – Winnipeg, MB (TSX: CGX.UN) – Cineplex Entertainment is very pleased to advise Winnipeggers the Odeon Drive In will re-open for the season tonight, Friday, May 19, 2006 with the first of a double feature beginning at dusk.

“The May long-weekend has been the official opening weekend of the Odeon Drive In for many, many years,” said Pat Marshall, Vice President Communications and Investor Relations for Cineplex Entertainment, managers of the drive in. “We are delighted to be able to operate the drive in for one more season as we know how much enjoyment it brings to Winnipeggers and visitors to the area.”

“Our opening films tonight couldn’t be more perfect for families and daters of all ages,” said Marshall. The first film is the comedy RV starring Robin Williams followed by the much anticipated film, the Da Vinci Code, starring Tom Hanks. This Sunday, the drive in will host a triple feature, which will include the addition of Benchwarmers, starring Rob Schneider.

Starting this Friday, the drive-in will be open seven days a week. Ticket prices are $8.00 for adults and $5.50 for children and seniors. Our car load price remains at $25.00.

The drive in is located at 4415 Portage Ave., just outside the city limits in Headingley and can accommodate up to 998 vehicles for an evening. Concession offerings at the Odeon Drive In include the classic selections of popcorn, candy and soft drinks, as well as freshly prepared hot foods including hamburgers, hot dogs, sausages, onion rings and french fries.
