CINEPLEX ODEON SOUTH KEYS CINEMA HOSTS
SECOND ANNUAL 12 DAYS OF CHRISTMAS MOVIES
IN SUPPORT OF THE OTTAWA FOOD BANK

A Donation of $2.00 and a non-perishable food item is all it takes to see a great classic holiday movie and make a difference in our community

Ottawa, ON December 7, 2005 – Cineplex Odeon South Keys Cinemas is proud to announce the Second Annual 12 Days of Christmas Movies fundraiser and food drive. Starting Tuesday, December 13, 2005 until Saturday, December 24, 2005, at 7:00 p.m. each weekday and at 1:00 p.m. on the weekends, guests can watch great holiday classics on the big screen. Admission for these movies is $2.00 each plus a non-perishable food item donation. All proceeds will go to The Ottawa Food Bank.

“We are thrilled to support The Ottawa Food Bank for the second year in a row and we hope to collect a great deal of food and donations for the cause,” said Pat Marshall, Vice President Communications and Investor Relations for Cineplex Entertainment. “These movies are classics and people really enjoy seeing them, again, especially on the big screen!”

“Ottawa residents and the surrounding area can take this opportunity to make a real difference in the lives of families in their community,” said Peter Tilley, Executive Director, The Ottawa Food Bank. “It is a pleasure to continue our partnership with Cineplex Odeon South Keys Cinemas. We saw the great results from last year’s 12 Days of Christmas Movies food drive, and we are hopeful that this year there will be even more food collected.”

Marshall added, “The Ottawa Food Bank provides a very important and necessary service for families in the Ottawa area and we’re proud to help them fight hunger, particularly at this time of year.”

The Ottawa Food Bank is the central emergency food assistance organization in the National Capital Region. Through its network of 111 social service agencies, the food bank helps 37,000 individuals per month; 40 per cent of whom are children.
