Cineplex Odeon Meadowtown Cinema Supports Pitt Meadows/Maple Ridge Families

Pitt Meadows/Maple Ridge, BC, March 9, 2005. The Ridge Meadows Hospital Foundation received a donation of $3,750 from the Cineplex Odeon Meadowtown Cinemas for the Your Health. Your Hospital. Capital Campaign. The donation, presented by Meadowtown general manager, Mike Yee, was accepted by Community Campaign chair, Barbara Keith and campaign volunteer, Barb Vandeneysel.

The funds were raised at the Family Fun Day held Saturday, November 20 in conjunction with the Grand Opening of the Cineplex Odeon Meadowtown Cinemas in Pitt Meadows.

All movies were free of charge to guests with the proceeds of the sale of concession items being donated to Ridge Meadows Hospital Foundation for the capital campaign.

“Every seat was filled. We were overwhelmed by the response from the community to our Family Fun Day.” said Yee. The Cineplex Odeon Meadowtown Centre Cinemas features all-stadium seating, wall-to-wall, giant curved screens, large, luxurious seats with generous legroom and Dolby Digital Surround Sound.

“We are very excited to welcome Cineplex Odeon Meadowtown Cinemas to our community and welcome their help in raising funds for our much needed expansion to Ridge Meadows Hospital Ambulatory Care/Emergency Departments.” said Keith.

Responding to the needs of an increasing population, Ridge Meadows Hospital will be breaking ground on a new Emergency/Ambulatory Care wing to the hospital in late spring of 2005. Total cost of the construction will be $10 million with the Ridge Meadows Hospital Foundation contributing $3 million. Presently the campaign has raised $2.2 million.
