

CHARTER OF EXPECTATIONS FOR DIRECTORS

The following charter of expectations for directors ("Charter") has been adopted by the Board of Directors ("Board") of Cineplex Inc. (collectively, with its subsidiaries and affiliates, the "Corporation").

1. GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

As a member of the Board (collectively, the "Members" or individually, a "Member"), and with a view to the Members functioning collegially, constructively and effectively, each Member will:

- a) oversee the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation;
- b) act honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the Corporation;
- c) exercise the care, diligence and skill of a reasonably prudent person;
- d) fulfill the legal requirements and obligations of a director; and
- e) represent the interests of all stakeholders in the governance of the Corporation and ensure that the best interests of the Corporation are paramount.

2. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

2.1. Board Activity

Each Member will:

- a) exercise good judgment and act with integrity;
- b) use their abilities, experience and influence fully and constructively;
- c) demonstrate high ethical standards;
- d) be an available resource to executive management and the Members;
- e) devote time to be of effective service to the Members and the Corporation;
- f) respect confidentiality by keeping confidential any information about the Corporation that has not generally been disclosed to the public;
- g) advise the Chair of the Board in advance when planning to introduce significant or previously unknown information or material at a Board meeting;
- h) be aware of potential personal conflicts, real or perceived, and disclose same, and abstain from board discussion and voting when appropriate;
- i) when appropriate, communicate with the Chair of the Board, committee chairs and/or CEO between meetings;
- j) demonstrate a willingness and availability for one-on-one consultation with the Chair of the Board and/or CEO;
- k) evaluate the performance of the Corporation;
- l) participate in regular evaluations of the Board, the Board committees and peer reviews;
- m) improve upon areas identified as lacking in peer review, if any;
- n) assist in maximization of shareholder value, while regarding themselves as accountable to the shareholders as a whole and not to any individual or group of shareholders;

- o) advise the Chair of the Board's Compensation, Nominating, and Corporate Governance Committee ("Governance Committee") of changes in circumstance that might affect their ability to function effectively as a Member, such as changes in employment, board appointments, personal bankruptcy status or mental or physical capacity, or if they become the object of any criminal, civil, administrative, investigative or other proceeding;
- p) advise the Chair of the Board or Chair of the Governance Committee at the earliest possible date if they will not be able or willing to serve as a Member;
- q) be collegial and respectful towards other Members;
- r) undertake to be in compliance with all of the Corporation's relevant policies; and
- s) not engage in, or undertake, lobbying activities (as defined in applicable legislation) on behalf of the Corporation without the prior written approval of the Chair of the Board and on written notice to the Corporate Secretary.

2.2. Preparation and Attendance

Each Member will:

- a) be prepared for Board meetings and those committees of which they are a Member, by reading reports and background materials and acquiring adequate information necessary for decision making;
- b) ensure that they devote sufficient time to carrying out the Member's duties effectively. It is recommended (but not mandatory) that no Member sit on more than four (4) public company boards;
- c) maintain an excellent Board and committee meeting attendance record. Members will strive for one hundred percent (100%) attendance and are expected to attend at least seventy-five percent (75%) of all regularly scheduled Board and seventy-five percent (75%) of all regularly scheduled committee meetings. Anything less than seventy-five percent (75%) attendance, without extenuating circumstances, may create considerable concern for the Board. Members are further expected to make reasonable efforts to attend face-to-face meetings in person.

2.3. Communication

Each Member will:

- a) participate fully and frankly in the deliberations and discussions of the Board; and
- b) encourage free and open discussion of the affairs of the Corporation by the Members.

2.4. Independence

Each non-management Member will speak and act independently of management.

2.5. Committee Work

Each Member is expected:

- a) to participate on committees when asked and become knowledgeable about the purpose and objectives of the committee; and
- b) to understand how committees function and the role of management and staff supporting the committees.

2.6. Business, Corporation and Industry Knowledge

Each Member will:

- a) become and remain knowledgeable about the Corporation's products, services and industry;
- b) develop and maintain a thorough understanding of the role of the Corporation within its industry;
- c) develop and maintain an understanding of the regulatory, legislative, business, social and political environments within which the Corporation operates;
- d) develop and maintain financial literacy sufficient to carry out their responsibilities as a Member;
- e) participate in and receive on-going training and education sufficient to support their contribution as a Member;
- f) become acquainted with the members of the executive management team and other key management of the Corporation;
- g) remain knowledgeable about the Corporation's facilities and visit them when appropriate; and
- h) be an effective ambassador and representative of the Corporation, but will not speak on behalf of the Corporation without the consent of one of the Corporation's designated spokespersons (as specified in the Corporation's "Confidential Information Policy").~~appropriate authority.~~

2.7. Potential Grounds For Dismissal

The following are potential grounds for the Corporation to require that a Member offer their resignation as a Member:

- a) meeting and/or committee attendance at levels below seventy-five percent (75%) of regularly scheduled meetings, except under extenuating circumstances;
- b) perceived failure to discharge duties listed in this Charter;
- c) incapacity or diminished capacity;
- d) poor peer evaluations that are not remedied;
- e) employment or board appointment at a competitive organization;
- f) membership on more than four (4) public company boards;
- g) loss of confidence in the Member's level of commitment, competence, judgment or integrity; or
- i) any other criteria that the Board, acting reasonably, should determine appropriate.

Confirmed: March ~~6, 2023~~2024